

2020 ONE & ONLY SERIES: CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

MOXIE Productions and the Grange Hall Cultural Center (GHCC) invites submissions for solo performance shows of all kinds for its 2020 season, January-April, in Waterbury Center, Vermont. Submitted proposals may represent storytelling, improv, dance, musical, puppetry, multimedia, variety, spoken word, cabaret, burlesque, stand-up, magic, tragedy, comedy, and other forms of solo performance.

Proposals should consist of:

- 1) A synopsis (a clear and concise written description of your show) including duration;
- 2) A copy of current script;
- 3) Any production history including grants or other awards;
- 4) Bios of all collaborators;
- 5) Technical requirements and on-site technical needs;
- 6) Any video samples.
- 7) A press packet of materials and any press received

Preference will be granted to shows:

- 1) Between 45-90 minutes running time; (unless a group is applying together with 60-90 minutes total of separate solo shows of 15 minutes or more)
- 2) With uncomplicated production/technical needs;
- 3) Self-contained with design and construction executed prior to arrival;
- 4) With artists willing to participate in community outreach/education/publicity events associated with their work;
- 5) Of local and/or international material;
- 6) With multiple scheduling options

Artists will receive:

- 1) Two or more consecutive performances of their work in the 2020 One & Only Series;
- 2) Full publicity package through our media systems and networks;
- 3) Full technical rehearsal prior to the show, as necessary;
- 4) Front-of-House and Box Office personnel and operation for all performances;
- 5) 50/50 split of box office receipts with performer or group of performers;
- 6) Production/technical support and operation for their One & Only performances;

Please note that shows can still be in development, but presentation must be complete in dramatic form according to MOXIE Productions/GHCC evaluation.

All scripts are the sole property of the authoring artist and will not be shared with anyone unassociated with the One & Only production without written consent of the artist.

Other guidelines:

- 1) Submissions must be digital and will be accepted by email only, unless otherwise previously arranged.
- 2) All submissions must be complete at the time of application.
- 3) MOXIE Productions and Grange Hall Cultural Center have the right to refuse any submission for any reason at any time.

Apply with above requirements to grangehallcc@gmail.com with "2020 One & Only Submission" in subject line.
